Gunn Law Group Attorney Kelly Gray Elected to FJA Board

Tampa, FL. (June, 2008) – Kelly K. Gray, an insurance attorney with Gunn Law Group, P.A., has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Florida Justice Association (FJA), formerly known as the Academy of Florida Trial Attorneys. Ms. Gray will be helping guide the organization’s goal of strengthening and upholding Florida’s civil justice system and protecting the rights of Florida’s citizens and consumers. FJA seeks to accomplish this goal, in part, by working within the legislative process and providing information regarding laws that affect Floridian’s rights.

Ms. Gray focuses her legal practice on the prosecution of insurance coverage claims payments and bad faith actions against insurance companies that refuse to pay policyholders fully, fairly and promptly. These cases frequently involve substantial losses resulting in serious injuries, death and catastrophic damage to insured property where the insurance claim has either been denied or is being disputed.

Before representing plaintiffs, Ms. Gray was a defense attorney for insurance companies, product manufacturers and other large corporations from 1993-2002. More recently, she was Claims Counsel for Travelers of Florida (formerly known as First Floridian Auto and Home Insurance Company) and also served on the Insurance Disaster Assessment Team (“IDAT”) regarding Florida’s hurricanes.

Ms. Gray is a graduate of Cornell University Law School. She is admitted to both the Florida and New York bars, U.S. District Court – Middle District of Florida and U.S. Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals. She is a member of the American Bar Association – Tort and Insurance Sections.
